Voting analysis: Third Committee resolution on the situation of human rights in Myanmar

Overview

The vote this year was 98 for, 25 against with 63 abstaining. Compared to last year in the Third Committee, this shows an increase of 2 YES votes, a decrease of 3 NO votes and an increase of 3 abstentions. Compared to last year in the General Assembly plenary, this is 13 more YES votes, 1 less NO vote and 17 more abstentions. Seven States were absent.¹

Overall, the major changes of note are Tunisia's shift from being absent in country resolutions to voting YES, Libya's shift from NO to YES, Malaysia's shift from NO to abstain and the change from abstain to YES by the Central African Republic, Cote d'Ivoire, Gabon, Guinea Bissau and Haiti.

States that made statements in support of the resolution include Poland, Turkey, Botswana, Japan and Australia. Myanmar, DPRK, Cuba, China, India, Vietnam, and Venezuela spoke against the resolution as well as any country-specific resolutions, which they described as being counter reproductive and politically driven. Neighboring states including Thailand, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore explained their abstentions in light of the recent positive changes in Myanmar, pledging their support to the government. Brazil (who abstained), welcomed recent steps taken by the country and encouraged Myanmar to address justice, accountability and access to truth to promote national reconciliation.
